

Andbanc Grup Agricol Reig Corporate Offices

Panama City, Republic of Panama

Andbanc is an international private banking firm headquartered in western Europe and is the first private banking and financial services firm in Andorra.

Located in the Generalli Tower of Panama, this project consisted of design and construction services for an Andbanc corporate office facility.

This 2,150 SF office construction included the innovative application of a metallic paint finish for wall panels and ceilings and the incorporation of a glass wall with modern design for unique project character.

This project was delivered on schedule for immediate occupation by the client.
